Question—Dan Pantages—pantages47@gmail.com 604-354-5444

Hi all. This Accucraft engine was dropped off at my place for me to fix. As you can see the owner has melted off the front of the fire box. This is an Accucraft 0-6-0, butane fired. I have no idea who owns this engine. If anyone knows who owns it please get him to contact me.

The case it was in when he dropped it off
